

Privacy Policy

What information do we collect?

To provide you with our Services, we collect your personal information. This can include information that does not personally identify you — such as device numbers, IP addresses, and account numbers. It may also include information that does personally identify you, such as your name, address, email, and telephone number. We call any information that identifies you "personally identifiable information." We collect this information to provide our Services, respond to your requests, and to tailor our Services to best meet your needs and interests.

What do we do with this information?

We use the information we collect to provide our Services and communicate with you. We also use it to improve our Services, develop new products and services, give recommendations, investigate theft, copyright infringement and other illegal activities, and to ensure a secure online environment.

Do we share your information we collect with outside parties?

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information.

How may you access, correct or remove personal information?

To gain access to collected personal information about you, and to keep it accurate, complete and current, or to request deletion, you may contact us by phone or email. You may also log into your customer portal where you have the ability to make changes. In some cases, where we are required to retain information by law or regulation, or to continue to manage a service you have requested, or to ensure that we honor your preferences, or for other necessary business purposes, we may not be able to delete certain personal information about you.
